North Carolina Private Protective Services (PPS) Firearms Training Course Outline and Requirements 3-Day Handgun and Shotgun Course (Page 1 of 2)

The PPS requires an Armed Guard Applicant to complete a 20 hour (minimum) classroom plus qualification time “Firearms Training” program. IMFs Corporation offers an intense and demanding Three Day Course to meet this requirement for handguns and shotguns. (6 or) 8 hours of shotgun training will be conducted in 2 four hour sessions after the handgun training on Day 1 and Day 2.

Please, see the requirements immediately following the schedule before attempting this type of intense training. During all aspects of training the students should be dressed in “duty clothing or uniforms”.

Day 1 Schedule 9:00am “until” (usually 8+ hours) (12+ hours with shotgun) Basics, Mechanics, Bio-Mechanics, Techniques, Operations

Modules from the book that do not involve use of force or legal issues are covered: Module II Safety (1 hour); Module III Handgun Operation and Maintenance (Three [+] hours); Module IV Marksmanship Fundamentals (Eight [+] hours – four of the required 8 on Day 1). Modules 2-4 account for a minimum of 12 hours of training, 8-9 will be completed on Day 1. Immediately following the 8 hours of handgun training, four hours of the Shotgun Module (8 hours) will be covered.

Day Two begins with the completion of Module IV Marksmanship Fundamentals and ends with Module V: Night Firing (Four [+] hours). Immediately following, four hours of the Shotgun Module (8 hours) will be covered.

Day 3 Schedule 9:00am “until” (usually 12+ hours) Legal, Range, Practice and Qualification Attempts

Starting at 9:00am Module I: Legal (Four hours). Day 3 is arranged to meet the requirements for re-certification. Renewal participants will join on Day 3. 1-2pm lunch break. After Day Qualifications, shotgun qualifications will be shot and night/flashlight techniques will be practiced as needed. A break will be had in the late afternoon. Student Requirements and Recommendations

Participants MUST have and utilize their duty equipment during all training. This includes, but is not limited to: on-duty clothing or uniforms including belts and hats/caps; duty guns and holsters (and accessories, magazine pouches, at least two extra magazines, etc.); duty flashlights. Participants cannot “train and qualify” with one set of equipment and then go “on the job” with another. Manufacturer, model and serial number of each gun is turned in with the final paperwork.

DO NOT bring any LIVE AMMUNITION to the classroom.

All fees MUST be paid in advance. IMFs Corporation does not “bill later” or offer a credit plan.

On Day 3 participants MUST have AT LEAST 400 rounds of “Duty Ammunition” (or ballistic equivalent) for each handgun they intend to qualify with. This is “only enough” ammunition for three day and night qualification attempts, and some practice and/or live-fire training. Shotgun shooters MUST have at least 10 each of slugs and 00-buck shells. Running out of ammunition – for any reason – is not an excuse from a “Did Not Qualify” result of this training.

Participants should bring all necessary note keeping supplies. Course costs for new participants include the “Private Protective Services Firearms Training Manual – STUDENT” book.

Participants MUST be physically and mentally capable of long hours with a great deal of physical activity. Throughout the training we will do a lot of stance/position transitions, drills (draw, load/unload, malfunction) and “dry runs” of the Qualification Courses of Fire. There is no “physical disability” language in the PPS rules: Participants MUST be able to transition from standing to kneeling, kneeling to standing, standing to prone and prone to standing without assistance.

Participants should bring any meals, drinks and/or snacks that they require to endure a 12-13 (or more) hour work/training day. Breaks are given every hour.

Participants should take advantage of any time before they start class to familiarize themselves with their holsters and firearms. They absolutely should learn the “Four Rules of Gun Safety” before it is taught here. Students should have a good comprehension of the “Basic Security” duties and responsibilities, especially the legalities and use of force.
