Participant Requirements and Recommendations

Participants must have and utilize their duty equipment during all training. This includes, but is not limited to: on-duty clothing or uniforms including belts and hats/caps; duty guns and holsters (and accessories, magazine pouches, at least two extra magazines, etc.); duty flashlights. Students cannot “train and qualify” with one set of equipment and then go “on the job” with another. Manufacturer, model and serial number of each gun is turned in with the final paperwork.

DO NOT bring any LIVE AMMUNITION to the classroom.

All fees MUST be paid in advance. IMFs does not “bill later” or offer a credit plan.

Participants MUST have AT LEAST 300 rounds of “Duty Ammunition” (or ballistic equivalent) for each gun they intend to qualify with. This is “only enough” ammunition for three day and night qualification attempts, with NO practice and/or live-fire training. Running out of ammunition is not an excuse from a “Did Not Qualify” result of this training.

Participants should bring all necessary note keeping supplies.

Participants MUST be physically and mentally capable of long hours with a great deal of physical activity. Throughout the training we will do a lot of stance/position transitions, drills (draw, load/unload, malfunction) and “dry runs” of the Qualification Courses of Fire. There is no “physical disability” language in the PPS rules: Students MUST be able to transition from standing to kneeling, kneeling to standing, standing to prone and prone to standing without assistance.

Participants should bring any meals, drinks and/or snacks that they require to endure a 8-10 hour work/training day. Breaks are given every hour.
